Feast of the Body & Blood of Christ 19th June 2022

My body is the package of life that is me. The Son of god once lived on earth in a physical package of human flesh and blood. His visible package is now the consecrated bread and wine. A sacrament is the visible sign of the invisible grace. Chemical analysis would still show the properties of bread and wine. But our belief, based on the words of Jesus, is that the substance, the inner life, of bread and wine has been changed. Now it is the presence of Jesus as our food for life
